Focused leadership support— when clarity matters most

Some leadership moments don't require a long-term engagement.

They require clear thinking, experienced perspective, and a steady presence—now.

Precision Coaching is a contained coaching package designed to support leaders who are facing a specific decision, inflection point, or moment of responsibility and want to meet it with clarity and intention.

This work is not about advice or quick fixes.

It is thoughtful, discerning coaching—delivered with precision

When Precision Coaching is the Right Fit

Precision Coaching is well suited when you are:

- Facing a high-stakes decision or leadership dilemma
- Preparing for a critical conversation, transition, or moment of visibility
- Navigating complexity, pressure, or competing demands
- Feeling stuck in a pattern and wanting to shift it deliberately
- Seeking experienced perspective without entering a long-term engagement

If something matters now, this work provides focused support without excess.

What the Precision Coaching Package Includes

Precision Coaching is offered as a single package, paid at booking.

The package includes:

One 40-minute initial coaching session

A focused conversation to clarify the situation, surface what truly matters, and identify the most useful next steps.

Two 20-minute follow-up sessions - each a week or more later

Used selectively to deepen insight, support execution, or revisit the issue as it unfolds.

Follow-up sessions are scheduled as needed. There is no obligation to use all sessions unless they are genuinely helpful.

How the Process Works

- 1 We begin with brief screening questions to determine fit and focus.
- 2 If it feels right, you schedule your initial session.
- 3 We meet for a focused 40-minute conversation.
- 4 Follow-ups can be set at time of scheduling or as needed.

This structure allows the work to remain responsive rather than procedural.

A Note on Fit

Precision Coaching works best for leaders who are willing to engage honestly, work with real constraints, and think beyond familiar narratives.

If I believe another form of support would serve you better, I'll say so directly.

Precision Coaching Package — $575

A focused, short-term engagement designed to help you gain clarity and move forward on a critical issue.
